S. J. A. Seniors Receive Rings

It has become a tradition at St. Joseph Academy in Bay St. Louis that members of the senior class be given their rings at a special ceremony. This ceremony took place on Thursday, January 8th for the girls of Class '48. The young ladies attended 7:30 Mass and received Holy Communion, then repaired to the refectory where breakfast was served. Later they assembled in the S. J. A. Memorial Hall, where Mother Blanche gave a short, impressive talk, stressing all that the ring represents. Each young lady was then presented her ring by Sister Raphael, with Mother Blanche placing the ring on the finger of each of the nineteen seniors. The ceremony closed with the singing of the Class song and Alma Mater.

The following named young ladies compose the class of 1948: Latoria Bourgeois, Carol Spence, Violet Capdepone, Joan Elliott, Doris Carriou, Norma Collins, Dolores Shick, Alice Bernard, Joyce Banker, Jane Blair, Gaynell Gex, Shirley Turcotte, Anne Ringsdorf, Gwen Hattman, Joel Quintini, Virgil Dick, Thelma Namais, Kay Ford, Gloria Martin.

W. B. A. Installation Held January 5th.

Installation of W. B. A. Officers took place at the home of Mrs. Letitia Note on Monday, January 5. Miss Miriam Engman, past president acted as installation officer, due to the sudden illness of Mrs. Fay Argueles of Biloxi.

It was decided that there will be no change of date for the monthly meetings. It will remain the first Monday night of each month. A permanent meeting place will be announced in February.

Members of the W. B. A. will not hold their annual Carnival Ball but a most interesting program will be presented at the February meeting.

The W. B. A. Birthday Banquet, to be given in March was discussed. Details are to be completed by the February meeting.

BOY SCOUTS LAYING PLANS FOR 1948

The Boy Scouts of the Bay-Pass District have joined forces with the other 65,000 troops in the nation in laying plans for a program of good turns and civic service during 1948. This was announced by Mr. L. S. Elliott, District Chairman of the Bay-Pass District.

Unit leaders are asked to develop troop plans before January 10th and report to the local New Orleans Area Council so that plans can be dramatically released during Boy Scout Week, February 6-15.

The theme for Boy Scout Week and for the year 1948 is "The Scout Citizen at work in his home, in his community, in his nation, in his world." The proposed plan of action is to be announced during Boy Scout Week to the units. Twelve Scouts representing the twelve regions in the United States will travel to Washington, D. C. and will report to the White House.

Along with the plans for 1948, units will put in window displays and hold special functions in celebration of the 38th anniversary.

ORTIE THEATER SUNDAY - MONDAY "THE UNFINISHED DANCE"

M-G-M takes you behind the scenes of the ballet in "The Unfinished Dance," gripping story of a little ballerina who worships the star of her company and whose hatred for a rival dancing queen is so intense that she brings about a near-tragedy. Filmed in Technicolor, with spectacular dancing scenes, and with little Margaret O'Brien in her most interesting role, the new picture is currently being shown on the Ortte screen as one of the season's outstanding film offerings.

Miss O'Brien plays wistful little Meg, whose great ambition is to be another Mlle. Ariane Bouchet (Cyd Charisse), dancing star of the ballet company in whose school Meg is a talented pupil. When a new ballerina, La Darina, (Karin Booth), is brought into the company, Meg, believing she is there to replace her idol, plots to make La Darina's debut a disastrous failure. Through an unexpected occurrence, Meg's action results in a permanent injury and the end of a dancing career for the rival star. How the little girl is able to extricate herself from an overwhelming sense of guilt for her tragic mistake and to make amends to the ballerina she has wronged makes for a picture of unremitting dramatic intensity and emotional impact.

We also wish to thank Mrs. Wm. 5401 in said Court of Julia M. Bel-Sick and Bebe Favre, for helping to entertain these children and also doing most of the serving.

Tuesday
JANUARY 6th

THIS WEEK, the 1948 Mississippi Legislature convened in Jackson for what many predict will be one of the most constructive legislative assemblies in State history.

High on the list of proposed constructive legislation will be the enactment of a sound and modern oil and gas conservation law.

Our present conservation law, enacted in 1932—seven years before the State's first oil well was discovered in the Tinsley Field in Yazoo County in 1939—is outmoded and is inadequate for the proper administration of Mississippi's now proven reserves of 600-million barrels of oil and from two to three trillion cubic feet of natural gas.

This Association, as a service to the new Legislature, has assembled factual information pertaining to modern engineering and conservation methods and has it available for interested lawmakers with the view that modern conservation in Mississippi will mean the securing of the maximum possible barrels of oil and cubic feet of natural gas from every Mississippi reservoir.

Every citizen of Mississippi has a vital interest in this objective of this Association because what helps the sound development of our oil and gas resources helps Mississippi and all Mississippians.

This is one of a series of informative messages published in the public interest. Your comments or questions are welcomed.

Veteran's News

More than 52,000 veterans in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi were admitted to Veterans Administration hospitals during the past year. VA's Dallas Branch Office reported this week.

The report showed that 143,000 treatments and 244,000 examinations of veterans in the tri-state area were given by VA in out-patient clinics during the same period.

VA offices in the three states dispatched 11,000,000 pieces of mail and conducted 1,700,000 personal interviews with veterans during 1947.

Direct payments to veterans in the Dallas Branch Area during the year amounted to more than $425,000,000. This included disability compensation, death claims, insurance settlements, and tuition and subsistence to veterans in schools or training.

At the end of the year, VA was paying disability compensation to 181,000 veterans in three states.

More than 43,000 loans on homes, farms and businesses were guaranteed by CVA during 1947, bringing the cumulative total for the three states to 75,200 loans with $227,400,000 guaranteed by the government.

Veterans in training in the tri-state area at year's end totaled almost 254,000. The number in school or institutional work increased 63 percent compared to a 15 percent decrease in the number of veterans training on-the-job.

Around 75,000 veterans reinstated lapsed National Service Life Insurance amounting to $510,000,000 during the year.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q—What is vocational advisement all about and why is it required under Public Law 16?

A—The main purpose of vocational advisement is to determine whether a disabled veteran should train for a profession, or for a particular trade or occupation based on his previous education, experience, personal desires and present ability. The veteran is interviewed by highly trained specialists who will consider his desires, but are required to advise him against starting a course for which his aptitudes or physical limitations do not insure reasonable likelihood of success. In short, this advisement is mandatory under the program to insure the disabled veteran's proper rehabilitation.

Q—Under Public Law 16, must I go to a vocational school or may I go to a liberal arts college, a high school, or similar institution?

A—You may enroll in any VA-approved educational institution or training establishment offering the course of training which VA has found you need to insure your proper rehabilitation in line with your own desires.

Q—Will my disability compensation be reduced if I go into training under Public Law 16 or under the G-I Bill?

A—No.

Q—I am receiving compensation for injuries received during World War II and would like to know if my compensation check is subject to seizure by creditors or for taxes?

A—No.

LEGISLATIVE
DIGEST

Mississippi's 1948 Legislature, faced with fewer organizing problems than in many years, came officially into being at noon Tuesday and started at once to study a high stack of official reports from the various state departments.

Probably of most interest among these—both to the solons and the taxpayers—was the voluminous report of the State Budget Commission, "Suggesting" state appropriations totalling $91,000,000 in round figures.

There were literally dozens of other reports for the solons to study, for each of the 90-odd state departments, agencies, bureaus and commissions is required by law to make a biennial report of its activities and explain how it spent its last appropriation more of interest, each is supposed to recommend any needed changes in the laws its operations.

Organizing of this session was simplified in the House by the fact that no candidate appeared to contest Speaker Walter Sillers of Rosedale, seeking re-election. When Secretary of State Walker Wood, as he is required to do by the Constitution, "Swore in" the new members, they went at once into the job of giving Speaker Sillers a unanimous vote, and returned to the minor job of naming a clerk, sergeant at arms and other lesser jobs.

In the Senate, aside from a brisk scrap over the top elective post, President pro tem, there was little to halt organizational work and Lieutenant Governor-Elect Sam Lumpkin of Tupelo was at hand, but taking no active hand in affairs, pending his official swearing-in ceremony on January 19, the day ahead of the governor and the same day that all other elective state officials begin their 1948-52 terms.

A joint session, as provided in the Constitution, was held early for election of two officers; but since neither of the incumbents has opposition, election was a formality for Postmaster Mrs. Tom (Lillian) Minyard and State Librarian (Miss) Julia Starnes.

Later in the week, the two houses stated a joint session to hear Governor Wright make his "outgoing" report.

Since, as lieutenant governor, he became governor upon the death of the late Governor Tom Bailey, Governor Wright is both outgoing and incoming governor; his speech this week reporting on state conditions, is expected to be fairly brief; his real recommendations will come in his inaugural speech January 20, when he begins a full term of his own.

Because taxes affect every Mississippian, there is probably more interest in the budget commission's report and recommendations than any other; this time Chairman A. H.
Stone of the State Tax Commission and assistant director of the budget (by law the governor is ex-officio chairman) proposes no changes in tax laws as they now stand; the budget as presented is based, Mr. Stone says, on the best possible "forecasts" of what present tax laws will bring during the next biennium—which, incidentally, does not start until July 1 of this year, running to July 1, 1950, under the state's fiscal year setup.

Mr. Stone estimates that tax laws will bring the state about $99,200,- 000, or about $150,000 more than for the current biennium. Of this, $89,300,000 would come from taxes administered by the State Tax Commission, most of which are "excise" taxes, levied on a percentage basis—such as the two per cent sales tax—and therefore immediately reflect business trends. If business remains as good as it is, Mr. Stone says the income may run a bit higher—but if a recession develops, of course it would be immediately shown in tax collections.

Some of the estimated revenues from tax commission administered sources are sales tax, $42,000,000; income tax, $18,000,000; tobacco tax, $19,000,000; oil severance tax, (state's portion—one-third goes back to the producing counties) $6,400,000; and beer tax, $2,700,000. Four other tax laws are due to bring over $2,000,000 each through the commission, and several minor taxes smaller amounts.

Aside from the tax commission, advalorem taxes are due to bring about $2,000,000 at the present two mill rate; the insurance department will yield $3,000,000 from its fines and taxes; the penitentiary should net about $1,500,000 and the black market tax, if not repealed, $1,000,000.
Other taxes and fees will yield from $40,000 to several hundred thousand each.

In addition to the $99,000,000 expected from taxes this biennium, the budget report points out that there is an anticipated item of $12,- 000,000 cash balance at the end of this biennium.

The "working staff" of the Budget Commission, as Mr. Stone calls them are W. R. Hough, statistician, E. J.
Yelverton, auditor of the State Building Commission, and W. N.
"Jack" McGee, secretary of the Budget Commission. This trio has prepared the bulk of the commission's report, which makes this comment on estimated revenue and expenditures.

The general expenditure total of

QUICK RELIEF FROM

TABLETS

L. A. DE MONTLUZIN & SON

$91,000,000 is based on a four-point policy: (1) providing funds for all departments and agencies sufficient for efficient operation; (2) maintaining a cash reserve at all times of $5,000,000 to guard against periodic fluctuations; (3) providing a repair, replacement and equipment fund so that physical properties of the state may be kept in first class condition; and (4) giving due consideration to annual recurring costs of supporting any additional improvements.

They add the cash balance of $12,000,000 (using only round figures again) plus anticipated revenue of $99,200,000 will mean that $111,200,000 will be available for expenditures at this session, but no recommendations for appropriating the $20,000,000 over the $91,000,- 000 budget of expenses is made.

In other words it sums up like this:
the state can expect $99,200,000 from present tax laws during the new biennium; it may expect a $12,000,- 000 cash surplus making $111,000,000 cash available; against this, it estimates that appropriations of $91,000,- 000 be made; leaving a $5,000,000 "cushion" against periodic fluctuation, and $15,000,000 for new buildings and expansion, to be spent as the legislature sees fit.

For the first time, the official budget report this time shows how much money the various state agencies and departments can anticipate from "other than state appropriations." This, for instance includes federal grants to the health department, federal GI training money for colleges, grants for school lunch programs, etc. and the local funds available for school operating costs. For instance, the budget calls for $34,225,- 000 appropriation for common schools; it anticipates $30,200,000 additional available from "other sources" mostly local taxes; giving the common schools of the state $64,500,- 000 for all expense in the two-year period.

Total of all funds anticipated "from other sources than state appropriation" for all agencies runs to $77,400,000, so that with addition of $91,200,000 in state funds, these will have an overall total of funds of $168,000,000.

CYCLING PLANT WILL UP OIL OUTPUT 15 MILLION BARRELS

The multi-million dollar Cranfield Cycling Plant near Natchez, first of its kind in the world, has not only added an important new industry to Mississippi but promises to increase production of petroleum products in this one field by at least 15,000,000 barrels, and at a time when shortages threaten.

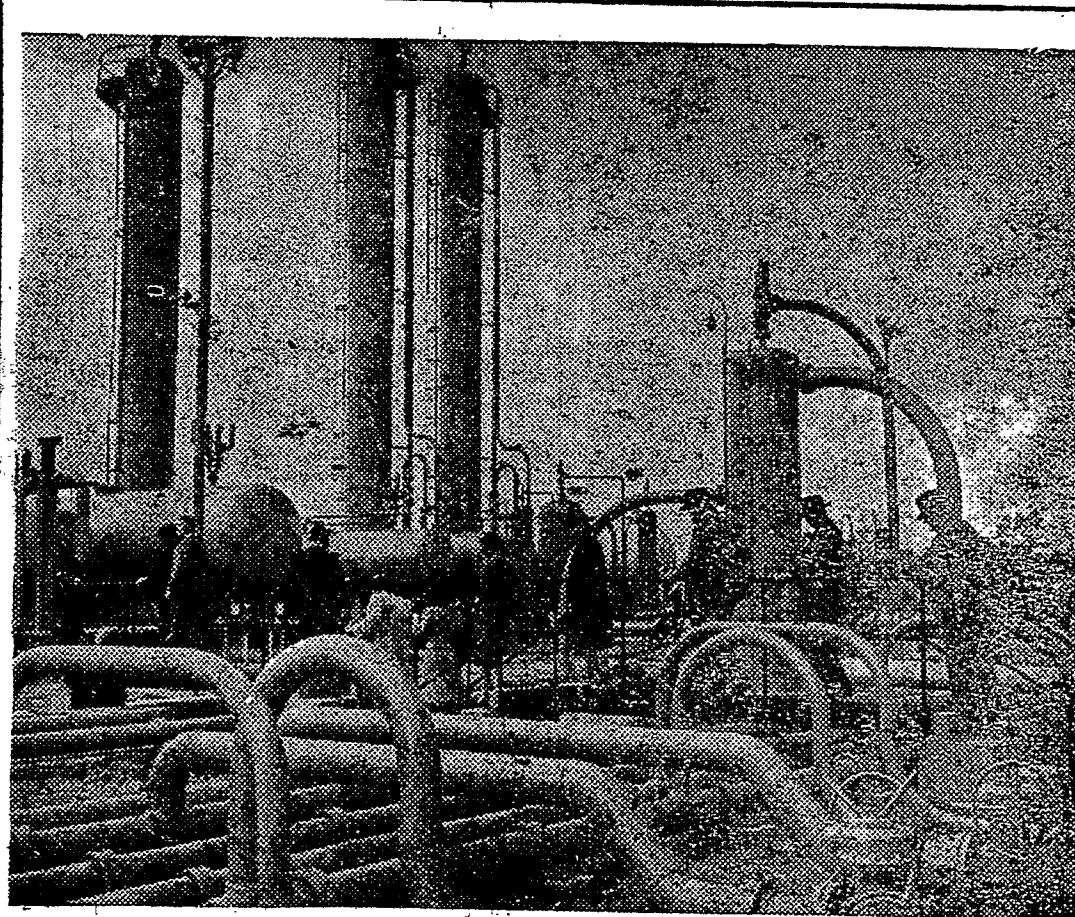

The unique project, operated by The California Company and recently dedicated at ceremonies attended by Governor Fielding L. Wright and other state officials, incorporates features which are being used for the first time as the oil industry seeks newer and better methods of getting the greatest good from the nation's natural resources.

Large gas condensate fields such as Cranfield require maintenance of gas pressure and cycling if undue waste is to be avoided. The new Cycling Plant will maintain new underground pressure by removing liquid products from wet gas and compressing dry gas for return to the underground reservoir. This prevents a decline in reservoir pressure as gas is withdrawn and assures the recovery of oil and gas which otherwise would be dissipated beneath the ground.

The Cranfield oil and condensate field, discovered by The California Company in 1942, is now producing a daily average of 10,000 barrels of crude oil and 3,000 barrels of condensate, a 144,000 barrels of condensate commercial gas line. Engineers estimate that from this particular property, under cooperative utilization, as practiced at Cranfield, each operator and royalty owner receives a share of the production from the value of recoverable reserves under his tract.

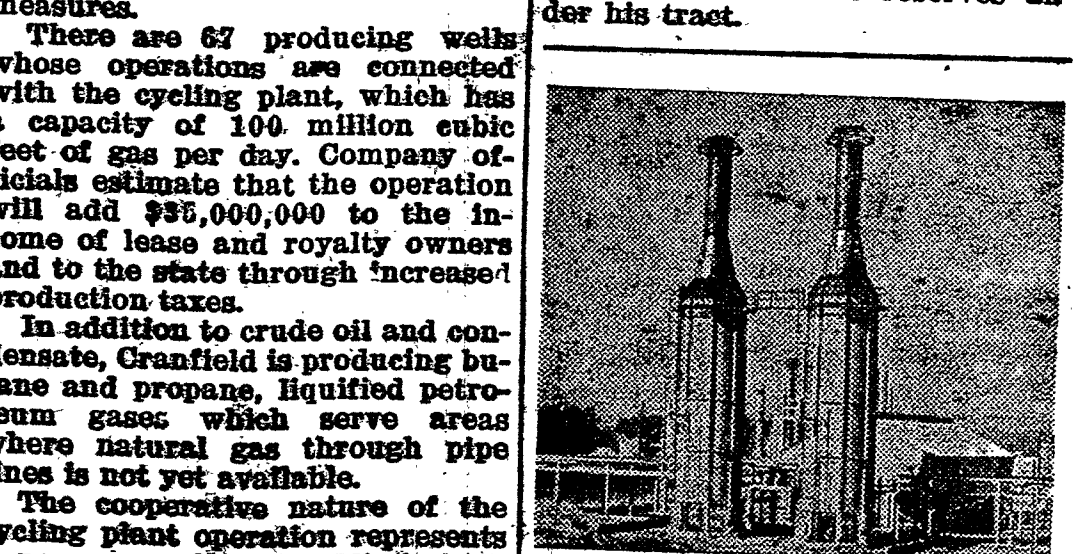

There are 67 producing wells whose operations are connected with the cycling plant, which has a capacity of 100 million cubic feet of gas per day. Company officials estimate that the operation will add $75,000,000 to the income of lease and royalty owners and to the state through increased production taxes.

The cooperative nature of the cycling plant operation represents a new procedure in Mississippi. Normally when oil fields are developed without utilization each operator and royalty owner receives a fixed percentage of the processes from the sale of oil, gas and liquid products produced from his particular property. Under cooperative utilization, as practiced at Cranfield, each operator and royalty owner receives a share of the production from the value of recoverable reserves under his tract.

One of the first steps in the cycling process is the heating of the oil in these towers.
